SBPC is volunteering to host a meal for 22 members of an Americorps Team on December 9 that are being housed at Chapelwood UMC.

In the Fall of 2017, four Houston congregations – Chapelwood UMC, St. Paul's UMC, Memorial Drive UMC, and Westbury UMC – came together to develop a long-term response plan to the catastrophic Hurricane Harvey floods. Over the coming years, their network of supporting congregations grew to more than 20 across the city and has welcomed countless out-of-town teams to roll up their sleeves and get to work. SBPC is one of those supporting congregations.

We need your help to volunteer to bring to our church's kitchen by December 8, some of the food items needed in providing the meal. You can sign up with Miguel Carlin or look for the sign-up sheet on the table in the Narthex.
