GOD • ONE ANOTHER • WORLD

April 4, 2022

Dear Members and Friends,

During this Lenten season, my family has had an amazing experience of learning the meaning of the words we said on Ash Wednesday. “You are dust, and to dust you shall return.” During this time, I want to take this opportunity to thank you for being a wonderful church family for us. I do believe God has taught us much in this extraordinary season. I wanted to share a little of that with you.

First, true Christianity is not about being the biggest, the slickest, the most entertaining, or the most popular. Paul taught us that “now abide faith, hope, and love, these three. But the greatest of these is love.” -1 Corinthians 13:13. I would not trade being a part of Spring Branch for anything. During the times we have needed your love and encouragement, you have been there. That truly is the greatest.

Second, there is true wisdom in knowing that time is fleeting. Psalm 39:4 says, “LORD, remind me how brief my time on earth will be. Remind me that my days are numbered— how fleeting my life is.” Indeed, it is easy for even the most spiritual of us to forget that we are but mortal. We have no guarantee of another day. If there are things we need to do, people we need to love, the best day for doing them is today. My prayer is that God would open each of our eyes to how trivial our temporary struggles are, that we might love and serve our Lord with our whole hearts today.

Finally, when the world is at its most broken, most cruel, most disillusioning, our God is with us the strongest. As Moses sent Joshua off into an uncertain and difficult time, he reminded his young leader, “It is the LORD who goes before you. He will be with you; he will not leave you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed.” - Deuteronomy 31:6-8. At times, these words seem merely academic. At other times, they are life indeed. We all go through these kinds of times. May God find us faithful. But even more than that, may we experience the profound faithfulness of our God.

Again, thank you more than I could ever say, for walking with our family through these times.

With love to our church family,

Kevin Boyd, Pastor

Missions of the Month

The “Mission of the Month” for April is Summerhouse Houston. Summerhouse was founded in 2011 by a mother, Donna Fruge, who has a daughter with an intellectual disability named Summer. The family could not find the right next step for Summer after high school. They wanted Summer to stay connected with her community and continue to develop work, social, and life skills, so Summerhouse was created.

Summerhouse offers community-based day services and supported employment services that are driven by the interests, needs, and strengths of those they serve.

Members of our day services spend time in the community doing activities of their choice, including volunteering and participating in social activities, classes, exercise, and more.

Through the supported employment program, they support members and referrals through the Texas Workforce Commission to find competitive, integrated employment. Summerhouse also provide coaching to ensure long term success on the job.

Jessie’s Bites, the organization that uses our church kitchen on Thursdays and Fridays of every week, employs members from Summerhouse. Jessie also attends programming at Summerhouse each week in addition to running Jessie’s Bites with her family and participating in the River School at Theatre Under the Stars.

Meal for Americorps Team

SBPC is volunteering to host a meal for 10 members of an Americorps Team on April 7 that are being housed at Chapelwood UMC.

In the Fall of 2017, four Houston congregations – Chapelwood UMC, St. Paul's UMC, Memorial Drive UMC, and Westbury UMC – came together to develop TRT, a long-term response plan to the catastrophic Hurricane Harvey floods. Over the coming years, their network of supporting congregations grew to more than 20 across the city and has welcomed countless out-of-town teams to roll up their sleeves and get to work. SBPC is one of those supporting congregations.
