Spring Branch Presbyterian Church
1215 Campbell Rd | Houston, TX 77055

Greetings, Spring Branch family!

In the movie Forrest Gump, Jenny and Forrest walk to the place of her upbringing and her terrible story of abuse. She begins to throw rocks until she runs out. She then throws her sandals at her old house before collapsing. Forrest comments, "Sometimes, I guess there just aren't enough rocks."

In the wake of the recent tragedy in Uvalde, I know a number of us are feeling like we had rocks to throw. Like Jenny, we might feel slightly and temporarily better by throwing rocks. However, it did not actually address her problem. All she managed to do was to break a few old windows on an abandoned building. And many are indeed finding rocks to throw. It is a natural response to our anger, our hurt, our outrage. My question to all of us is whether we are throwing at a target that is helpful. The problem with rocks is that they hurt when they hit.

In Ephesians 4:26 we read, "Be angry, and yet do not sin; do not let the sun go down on your anger." Being angry is not, in and of itself, wrong. In fact I am very angry right now. Here is a partial list:

- I am angry that this violence happens in our country.
- I am angry that even more parents will experience the anguish of losing a child.
- I am angry that the police did not stop this incident much faster.
- I am angry at the attempts on "both sides" to use this event for their own political purposes.
- I am angry that there was effectively no way to stop this person, who had many known red flags, from purchasing a firearm, especially the ones he bought.
- I am angry that there was essentially no mental help for this individual.
- I am angry that the school did not follow their own safety protocols, despite having just gone through training.
- I am angry that there were federal dollars available to make this school safe, but it was never done.
- I am angry about being told how clergy should think, how we should protest, and even what to wear when we do.
- I am angry at the name calling, the disrespect, and the hateful speech coming from the mouths of those who claim to be the more loving people.

And there is so much more. I could go on for quite a while, and I imagine that many of us could as well. But sometimes, I guess, there just aren't enough rocks.

So what can we do? Everyone seems to be asking this right now, so I thought I would give you some suggestions, knowing that you have other good ones as well.

1. Pray Fervently

Contrary to what I have been hearing out there, prayer is not doing nothing! I know from my own recent experiences that it is a very tangible source of strength.

2. Listen Genuinely

I am actually hearing a lot of agreement from both sides on this. Please get past the areas where we disagree and truly listen to the "other side." We are all in this together. We must stop vilifying people we do not understand, or with whom we have honest disagreements.

3. Give Wisely

While I wish we could simply write a check and fix the problem with gun violence, that isn't going to happen. Yet there are starting to emerge some funds which will directly help the lives of the victimized families, such as memorial funds. There are other ways to give; towards a new mental health hospital which will be built as soon as possible. Consider giving towards projects designed to making your particular world safer with structure and personnel upgrades. These are only three examples, but watch for wise ways to give which will indeed have an impact.

4. Love Courageously

If you have a passion for your point of view, then be angry without sinning. Put your words and actions into a context where you will be heard. If you are seen only as angry, there are very few who will want to listen. Do not make one particular viewpoint the only basis for fellowship. Understanding and a better world will be the result. Then, if we are one, the world will know of the love of Christ.

5. Throw the right rocks

These days, we need to make sure that our anger at a particular person, group, or ideal is justified. Anger is energy and we only have a finite supply. Further, with the added stress from the pandemic lately, we are seeing crime greatly increase. We are seeing anger acted out in inappropriate ways. It is not excusable, but it is understandable. We need to make sure that our anger does not come out against those we love at an unexpected time. If we need to vent, to scream, to pound the dust, there can certainly be value in that. Find a way to care for yourself. But please make sure you are not leaving a wide wake of collateral damage.

Brothers and sisters, I want you to know that I am here with you and that together we will get through this.

In Christ's Service,

Kevin Boyd, Pastor

"Whoever is slow to anger has great understanding, but he who has a hasty temper exalts folly."

-Proverbs 14:29

Missions of the Month

The Mission of the Month for June is the East Spring Branch Food Pantry! The Food Pantry is located at Holy Cross Lutheran Church, nestled at the corner of Westview and Wirt Rd. Their mission is to provide food, free of cost, to families in urgent need, who reside in zip codes 77024, 77040, 77041, 77043, 77055, 77080, 77091, or 77092. The organization is completely volunteer based – there are no employees. Therefore, they rely on its volunteers and donations – both cash and food.

Previously, the pantry used one-half of its current building and shared it with the maintenance equipment of the church. The pantry has since taken over the whole building and added an additional 20 feet of space beyond that. The choice-style pantry now looks like a small grocery store, where our friends can come, and with guidance, choose the food their families would like to eat. With the new construction, there is now a Donation Center where donations can be dropped off.

Food Donations for the East Spring Branch Food Pantry will be collected throughout the entire month of June. Donations may be brought to Worship on Sundays, the Covered Dish Supper on June 11th, or the Idea Spring Game Night on June 25th.

This summer, a mission team from MDUMC will go to the Maua Methodist Hospital in Maua, Kenya. They asked for baby hats to take with them because they will be assisting with newborns and children at the hospital. Anne and Betty stepped up to quickly make these hats. It is so good to know that 63 little ones will soon be wearing these hats. They are really cute and soft.

SPOT LIGHT

Director - Renee Henry
son Ethan, daughter Josie, and husband Matthew

As a mother of two kids, educator, and director of the Academy since 2003, I understand the importance of a caring, loving, nurturing environment for children.

I am very proud of the Academy, teachers and staff that work so hard to provide a safe and happy school. My goal for this newsletter is to keep you up to date on Academy news/events and spotlight our dedicated staff.

For those that would like to visit our school to see how the church's main mission is growing - give us a call and make an appointment and we would love to show you the Academy. Yours truly, Renee Henry

Since October 2021, Spring Branch Presbyterian has been delighted to welcome and support Girl Scout Troop 124182, made up of Brownies and Daisies.

On May 25th, the Troop was able to celebrate their first pinning ceremony. Each Girl Scout at the pinning ceremony shared what they learned this year and what their favorite badges were.

After the pinning ceremony, a time of fellowship and dinner was held. Troop 124182 will meet again in September. If you would like to learn more about Girl Scouts or help, please contact Karen Dikeman. Many thanks to members and friends of SBPC that have supported the troop to date!

Spring Branch Presbyterian Church was pleased to celebrate three new Eagle Scouts in Troop 478 on Sunday, May 24th. We want to send a special congratulations to Brian Jones, Ian McCormack, and Keith Jones and their families.

The Eagle Scout is the highest honor that can be achieved in Boy Scouts. Each Eagle Scout achieves a minimum of 21 merit badges, serves in a leadership role in the Troop, and completes a service project that will benefit their community.

Troop 478 meets on Monday evenings at the Scout Hut, and new members are welcome at any time. Several exciting summer activities are planned and if you would like to learn more, please contact the church office.
